

Hurricane Alley kicks off 6 race season
First event set for Aug16th at Houston Raceway

This year Hurricane Alley has a 6 race schedule running from August 16 until February 2009. Every race this year will be expanded into a motorcycle event with a special theme directed at each part of the motorcycling community.

We've expanded into six regular classes, one novice class and our special brand of TNT. At selected events, other classes will be added which complement that event's theme.
